The Weber High woodworking classes displayed their projects in the semi-annual showcase. Our Basic Woodworking students presented their treasure chests made out of cherry wood. We had the opportunity of using our new CNC (Computer Numerical Control) wood carving machine to carve out such things as the student's names, keyholes, Weber High logos, wildlife, sports emblems, etc. The Furniture Making Design students displayed their desks, gun cabinets, and curio cabinets. Several parts of the gun cabinets were milled out using the CNC machine. These students were very pleased with their work as they took their projects home. If you have a student who did not finish their project last semester, they are welcome to contact Mr. Carlson to make arrangements to come in and finish.
